Potential and Development

- Located in San Isidro, Granadilla de Abona, this is an excellent place for those seeking a home with a good location, access to all necessary services, and an active social, commercial, and cultural environment.
- The proximity to beaches, good connectivity with other areas of the island, and more affordable prices compared to other areas in the south make this location highly attractive for both living and investment.
- It is a place where you can enjoy peace, access to services, and the charm of the island.
- The real estate market here is growing, thanks to its accessibility, quality of life, and the development of the area.
- Its sustained growth is driven by the presence of new housing projects and the island's economic stability, which continues to drive demand for both family residences and real estate investments.

- The 14 plots located in San Isidro stand out for their excellent location and proximity to various services, commercial, social, and cultural attractions.
- Accessibility, with excellent connection to the TF-1 motorway, one of the main highways on the island.
- They are just 10-15 minutes by car from Tenerife South Airport (Reina Sofía).
- Connection to the tourist areas of southern Tenerife, such as Los Cristianos, Playa de las Américas, or Costa Adeje, allows you to enjoy a variety of tourist offerings without the noise of mass tourism.
